WHO AM I?

Hi, my name's Oliver and I have recently graduated with a first class honours in Film Production. Alongside the degree, I have worked on several productions to gain a breadth of industry experience and have just completed my first job out University, as Digital Producer on a high budget television show for NBC.

During a self-employed placement year, I became a partner in video production company; Gone South Media. I produced short form content ranging from promotional corporate videos, to music promos, being involved in all areas of production. I am looking to gain a position within a leading video production company to keep learning and building upon my experience.

I consider myself a people person, and have proven myself resilient and committed to roles that I take on.
